WHO WE ARE

For more than 45 years, the Pride of the Prairie Orchestra has been a cultural cornerstone of the High Plains. Founded by a dedicated group of musicians seeking to enrich both performers and audiences, the orchestra continues to thrive as a volunteer ensemble committed to sharing music with the region.

Each Monday evening, thirty to fifty musicians—ranging in age from 14 to 80—gather in the Colby Community College band room to rehearse. These members travel from across the region, representing diverse backgrounds and communities, yet come together through their shared love of music.
